

VOWS FOR THE ECUMENICAL ORDER OF ST. Morgan &ST. COLUMBA

Renewal of the Perpetual Vows.

"Most loving, eternal God, Father Almighty, Thou Who art deserving of all my love, I,

_____ on this _____ once again join myself, even { full name } { dd/mm/yyyy }

though unworthy, to The Ecumenical Order of St. Morgan & St. Columba and, inflamed with the desire of consecrating myself entirely to Thy holy love, in accordance with the Rule of the Ecumenical Order of St. Morgan & St. Columba, bind myself to serve Thee all the days of my life with all my strength, by imitating the holy life of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King, Thy Son and our Savior, which is the only way of pleasing Thee, and to labor for the salvation of souls. Now, therefore, in the presence of Thy Divine Majesty; and of the whole court of Heaven; prostrate on my knees, I vow anew, by this Holy Gospel, holy obedience and stability, persevering until death in the Ecumenical Order of St. Morgan & St. Columba"

{ Signature of Postulant }

{ Signature of Witness }

In all cases, the candidate signs and dates their vow; kneels, places their right hand on the Holy Bible and makes their vow. A witness signs the vow form immediately after the candidate makes their vow. The postulant should keep a copy and mail the original to:

Bishop Tom Mills
282 Oak Grove Dr. Apt 100
Madison Heights, VA (USA) 24572

You may also scan the document and send the scanned version by email to Bishop Tom Mills